

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA TEAMSTERS PENSION FUND

DEFINED BENEFIT PLAN

FEDERAL INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING ON MONTHLY PENSION PAYMENTS

Under the federal income tax laws, you have the right to elect not to have any income tax withheld from your monthly pension check if your benefits are payable over your lifetime (or over the joint lives of you and your spouse). All benefits paid by the Defined Benefit Plan will be subject to federal income tax withholding unless you elect otherwise on the election form and return the form to the Fund Office. If you do not make an election, or if you fail to return the election form, the Fund is required to withhold federal income taxes on your monthly pension benefits.

You may elect not to have withholding apply to your monthly pension payments from the Central Pennsylvania Teamsters Pension Fund by returning the enclosed election form, signed and dated, to the Central Pennsylvania Teamsters Pension Fund, PO Box 15223, Reading, PA 19612-5223. Your election will remain in effect until you revoke it. You can change your mind at any time and revoke your election by returning the enclosed election form, signed and dated, to the Central Pennsylvania Teamsters Pension Fund, PO Box 15223, Reading, PA 19612-5223. If you contact the Central Pennsylvania Teamsters Pension Fund, we will send you any additional election forms you may need.

If you do not return an election form to us by the time the first payment of your monthly pension is made to you, we must withhold federal income tax from your monthly pension payments as if you were married and claiming three withholding exemptions.

If you elect not to have federal income tax withheld from your monthly pension payments, or if you do not have enough federal income tax withheld from your monthly pension payments, you may have to pay estimated federal income tax. You may also have to pay penalties if your withholding and estimated federal income payments are less than the Internal Revenue Service requires.

Whether you have to pay federal income tax at all depends on your total taxable income for each year. If you do not owe any federal income tax because your income is too low, then you may not want to have any federal income tax withheld. If you have any questions about your own federal income tax payment obligations, you should consult with your tax advisor. If you have any questions concerning the enclosed election form, please contact the Fund Office at the Central Pennsylvania Teamsters Pension Plan.

Purpose. Form W-4P is for U.S. citizens, resident aliens, or their estates who are recipients of pensions, annuities (including commercial annuities), and certain other deferred compensation. Use Form W-4P to tell payers the correct amount of federal income tax to withhold from your payment(s). You also may use Form W-4P to choose (a) not to have any federal income tax withheld from the payment (except for eligible rollover distributions, or payments to U.S. citizens delivered outside the United States or its possessions) or (b) to have an additional amount of tax withheld.

Your options depend on whether the payment is periodic, nonperiodic, or an eligible rollover distribution, as explained on pages 3 and 4. Your previously filed Form W-4P will remain in effect if you do not file a Form W-4P for 2010.

What do I need to do? Complete lines A through G of the Personal Allowances Worksheet. Use the additional worksheets on page 2 to further adjust your withholding allowances for itemized deductions, adjustments to income, any additional standard deduction, certain credits, or multiple pensions/more-than-one-income situations. If you do not want any federal income tax withheld (see Purpose above), you can skip the worksheets and go directly to the Form W-4P below.

Sign this form. Form W-4P is not valid unless you sign it.

Personal Allowances Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

A Enter "1" for yourself if no one else can claim you as a dependent A _____

B Enter "1" if:
 { • You are single and have only one pension; or
 • You are married, have only one pension, and your spouse has no income subject to withholding; or
 • Your income from a second pension or a job, or your spouse's pension or wages (or the total of all) is $1,500 or less. } B _____

C Enter "1" for your spouse. But, you may choose to enter "-0-" if you are married and have either a spouse who has income subject to withholding or you have more than one source of income subject to withholding. (Entering "-0-" may help you avoid having too little tax withheld.) C _____

D Enter number of dependents (other than your spouse or yourself) you will claim on your tax return D _____

E Enter "1" if you will file as head of household on your tax return E _____

F Child Tax Credit (including additional child tax credit). See Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit, for more information.
 • If your total income will be less than $61,000 ($90,000 if married), enter "2" for each eligible child; then less "1" if you have three or more eligible children.
 • If your total income will be between $61,000 and $84,000 ($90,000 and $119,000 if married), enter "1" for each eligible child plus "1" additional if you have six or more eligible children F _____

G Add lines A through F and enter total here. (Note. This may be different from the number of exemptions you claim on your tax return.) G _____

For accuracy, complete all worksheets that apply.
 { • If you plan to itemize or claim adjustments to income and want to reduce your withholding, see the Deductions and Adjustments Worksheet on page 2.
 • If you have more than one source of income subject to withholding or a spouse with income subject to withholding and your combined income from all sources exceeds $18,000 ($32,000 if married), see the Multiple Pensions/More-Than-One-Income Worksheet on page 2 to avoid having too little tax withheld.
 • If neither of the above situations applies, stop here and enter the number from line G on line 2 of Form W-4P below.

----- Cut here and give Form W-4P to the payer of your pension or annuity. Keep the top part for your records. -----
