NEW REQUIREMENTS FOR OBTAINING GLP-1 MEDICATIONS

Effective January 1, 2027, all¹ Fund Participants and Dependents can obtain glucagon-like peptide-1 medications ("GLP-1s") under the Fund's prescription plan of benefits only through the Fund's 340B program. Participants and Dependents must access the Fund's 340B program through Alliance Community Healthcare, Inc. Participants and Dependents must register as patients with Alliance Community Healthcare, Inc. before the Fund will provide Benefits for GLP-1 medications on or after January 1, 2027.

- Prescriptions for GLP-1s first filled on or after January 1, 2027 through the Fund's 340B program will be limited to a 1-month supply. Only those patients who have used GLP-1 medications for longer than 6 months and have established a maintenance dose will be permitted to obtain a 3-month supply of the medication.

Participants and Dependents seeking GLP-1s must register as a patient at Alliance Community Health Care, Inc. To register, please contact the Medical Concierge at 551-229-7617. If you have any questions about your benefits or the changes described above, please contact the Fund Office at 610-320-5500.

¹ Plans 13, 14, and 16 have all been amended to incorporate this change.
